

Kristen Schultz, JD, ePMT

Kristen Schultz is Senior Vice President of Crescendo Interactive, Inc. and is responsible for tax planning advisement, client education and consultation for Crescendo's software and Internet products. She is a frequent speaker and writer in the area of gift planning and conducts seminars nationwide on strategies to identify and close major gifts. Kristen oversees Crescendo's GiftAnnuities 1 2 3 administration program, GiftLegacy eMarketing services and provides Crescendo staff with legal counsel and support. She is a principal faculty member of the popular GiftCollege planned gifts eLearning program and an editor of the GiftLaw weekly eNewsletter and charitable online tax reference guide.

Prior to joining Crescendo, Kristen served as Counsel to the Assistant Secretary of Education in Washington, D.C. Previously, she was Oversight Counsel to the Committee on the Judiciary of the U.S. House of Representatives.

Kristen received her J.D. from the University of California Los Angeles School of Law where she served as Editor of the UCLA Law Review. She is completing her L.L.M. in Taxation at the Loyola School of Law. She graduated Summa Cum Laude with a Bachelors in Philosophy and Business from Westmont College.

Kristen is a member of the State Bar of California, the District of Columbia Bar and the Maryland State Bar. She serves on two American Council on Gift Annuities (ACGA) Committees including the ACGA Committee on State Regulations and the ACGA Communications Committee and is a member of the Planned Giving Roundtable of Ventura County, California.